GARSON'S $100 FILLY TRIUMPHS OVER YOUNGSTERS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Silverskin Is the Medium of a Big Killing-Probable Reversal of Form - Jockey Garner's Injury Is Serious.

New Orleans, La., January 3 .- The redeeming feature of the poor card at the Fair Grounds today was the excitement afforded close finishes. Until Spion scored in the fifth, the followers of favorites had not faced the cashiers since New Year's Day, so Spion's victory was greeted with loud acclaim by the public. Under the harrow and the roller, the has been practically eliminated.

A killing of huge proportion was made over the victory of Silverskin in the third race. On previous form the 10 to 1 posted against him at the opening seemed to be a short price, but the betting on him was terriffic and it was not long before the thirty bookmakers had cut the price to half the opening figure and still the betting continued. Silverskin ran in greatly improved form and wore down and wore down Rustling Silk in time to land the money. The books also received a trouncing over the victory of Flavigny in the closing race.

The two-year-old race was for fillies and introduced several newcomers. Judging by the per-formance of all the starters it is safe to say that they are only ordinary and that nothing sensational can be expected of any of the youngsters that have appeared here up to date. On the strength of her second to Whisk Broom in the New Year's Day race, coupled in the betting with Ruby Wick as the Burlew & O'Neill entry was favored and the pair received steady support. Lattice, one of the Walden bred youngsters, also had strong backing, The others were not considered seriously. was quickest in motion at the start and set the pace steadily until in the last seventy yards where she tired slightly and permitted Work-a-Day, at to pass her and win by a length. Queen also came with a good burst of speed and was a good third. Jules Garson, the owner Work-a-Day, did not concede her a chance and did bet on her.

Troxler showed skill by winning on Florizel after he appeared beaten. Troxler's other winning mount was on Silverskin. Lloyd also piloted two winners Spion and Flavigny. Jockey Truman, while riding Vesme in the fifth race was struck in the eve with a clod of dirt. He had to resign the mount on Pride of Woodstock to Beckman.

The injury to jockey Garner seems to b serious than it was at first considered. J. H. Mc-Cormick, to whom the rider is under contract, had the lad undergo an X-ray examination and it was found that all the ligaments around the ankle had been badly sprained. Monet has five broken ribs, but Dr. Keough says the horse is doing well and Kilts, owned by M. Welch, is said will recover. to be in a bad way and will probably have to be

Old Latonia Trick Is Duplicated at Los Angeles-Handbooks Were Being Mulcted.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 3 .- For the last week of the handbooks down town have been sys tematically beaten by a coterie that has been work the track through signals. Seymour Beutler, the Pinkerton man in charge of Ascot Park, dis red the plotter today, arresting a man named L. J. Smith, local electrician, whom he caught in act of flashing a signal from the rear of the grandstand to a cottage near by. Big numbers were printed between the pages of the program and then spread out like an accordeon and flashed through the window while the man was apparently writing something on the reverse side. The men in the cottage were also arrested. They had been tele-phoning results downtown to a certain office from which a quick rush was made around town to the various handbooks.

EXPECT ALL RECORDS TO BE BROKEN. JOCKEY COLLIS INJURED AT ASCOT. Big Entry List Rolling In for the Spring

Handicaps-New York Racing News. New York, January 3 .- Up to four o'clock this afternoon fifty-seven nominations had been received for the Brooklyn Handicap, entries for which closed at midnight last night. This is considered a big showing for the first day and there is every indication of heavy entries in all the important stakes. Assistant-Secretary Smith of the Coney Island Jockey Club is sick and was unable to be at his office today. No tabulation of the Suburban entris re ceived had been made, but it was announced that the list was a heavy one. The same holds good for records for the big handicaps are broken. James B. Haggin still is the heaviest nominator to the Produce Stakes. He has made 284 entries to both the Futurity and the Brighton Produce of 1909. This is an increase from him. For the Hopeful, which closed in November he made 296 nominations.

Doncaster must be regarded as the greatest yearling bargain ever recorded. Bought by Mr. Merry for $4,750, the famous animal passed into the hands of Mr. Robert Peck for $50,000, and that gentle man made $20,000 on the deal when transferring the horse to the late Duke of Westminster.

Isinglass won the richest prize ever run for on 1894, which, with a surplus, was worth $56,510. Next in value comes the Prince of Wales' Stakes at Leicester in 1889. Donovan, the winner, took $55,000, the second $3,750, and the third $1,250.

May S. Falls with Him at First Jump-Gloria Shows Her Best Form.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 3 .- What looked for moment like a repetition of the killing of jockey Lewis occurred in the steeplechase today when May fell heavily with Collis after taking the first jump. Collis was picked up limp and apparently lifeless and quickly removed to the hospital, where, after being unconscious for quite a spell, he rallied Although no bones were broken, Collis pectorated much blood and was undoubtedly hurt internally. The track doctor, however, does not re gard his condition as serious. La Gloria got over Futurity Course fast today, clearly that her forte is on a fast track. The wiseacres threw out her mud races and supported her almost to a man. The finish in the fifth race was of the raising kind, many believing that El Cazador had won, but in this case those best in a position to judge were positive that the judicial placing was

MUTUEL BETTING IN FRANCE.

When bookmakers were barred from doing business in France little more than a year ago, confining speculation on racing to the mutuels, all sorts of dire predictions were made as to the future of the turf in that country. It was freely claimed that racing would lose its popularity under the exclusive system of mutual betting. It is interesting, therefore, to note how the turf has fared during period that has just closed the first full year of racing under the new conditions.

When making a comparison between receipts and profits in 1906 as against 1905 it is sufficient to take the balance sheets of the five leading "societies" in France. These are the Societe d'Encouragement, the Societe des Steeplechases de France, the Societe Sportive, the Societe du Demi-Sang and the The jurisdiction of the societies named in Paris and the neighborhood. where most of the important racing is regularly held.

There have been a few owners who have forsaken the turf owing to the "monopoly" control of betting, out there have been many newcomers to take their The opponents of the mutuels have frequently stated that the public did not attend meetings as much now as heretofore. In this statement they had truth on their side, but the falling off in gate receipts has only amounted to $40,000 for the

The full turnover amounted to $1,830,000, so if reckons the dethroned bookmakers who have not found it worth while to attend racing this past eason the discrepancy is practically accounted for It can thus be seen that there is no diminution in the ordinary race-going population.

And when one comes to the marked increase in mutuel profits it can readily be understood that both the French government and the various race societies have cause for self-congratulation. must always be recollected that the profits the race societies make do not go into private hands. They are all devoted to the advancement of racing,

The mutuels handled about $54,585,000 during the which shows an increase of about $7,140,000 on the takings in 1905. The government and the five societies named halve the eight per cent. deducted, the government's share being about $2,185, 000, or nearly $225,000 more than in the previous year.

This sum is expended on the poor, irrigation, etc Only last week the government commissioners voted $600,000 for irrigation purposes in 238 districts. The remaining 104 will be attended to shortly.

The publication of these race statistics plainly point to the increasing success of cross-country rac The Steeplechase Society and the Societe de Sport de France-the two big jumping bodies-are the only two to show an increase in gate receipts. Then the Steeplechase Society (which has charge of Auteuil) has actually taken more money in gate receipts and in mutuel investments than the Societe d'Encouragement, whose authority extends to Long champ and Chantilly. In fact, the Steeplechas Society alone shows an increase of $8,325 in "gate" and $1,772,110 in mutuel money over last year

M. Ruau has frequently expressed himself of late as perfectly satisfied, and it would appear that so long as the present prosperity remains in the French racing world bookmakers have merely "long odds" chance of returning to their old haunts Besides, they cannot compete with mutuel prices against outsiders.

NAMED FOR THE BIG HANDICAPS.

Oakland, Cal., January 3.-Logistilla, Nealon, Proper and Dr. Leggo have all been nominated to the Brooklyn, Suburban and the Brighton Handicaps. Nealon is also engaged in every stake of importance on the New York tracks. There is an unconfirmed rumor that the crack three-year-old Tony Faust has gone lame.

BALDWIN VISITS OAKLAND.

Oakland, Cah, January 3 .- E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin was a visitor at the track today. The famous turfman waxed enthusiastic over his Arcadia race track project. The track proper will be one mile and a furlong with a seven-furlong straightaway out of a chute. He says that it will be ready for racing by next November.

ANGRY CROWD AT OAKLAND

HOLTMAN LEAVES TWO HORSES AT THE POST AND THEY HISS HIM.

Keene Wins a Big Bet on Triumphant-Jockeys Williams and Rettig Are Injured in a Spill.

Oakland, Cal., January 3 .- Some 5,000 racegoers ok part in a hostile demonstration against starter Holtman at the Oakland race course today. hissing and yells of disapproval by the spectators continued for several minutes after the unlucky official returned to the judges' stand after the third race in which Golden Rule and Princess Wheeler were left at the post and the remainder of the field was apparently sent away in processional order. Close observers declared that all the horses were moving simultaneously and in perfect alignwhen Holtman released the barrier, but in such close proximity that they got in one another's way. Miller, on the inside, stole away with Triumphant as if the others were anchored. Thurston, who had the mount on Golden Rule, is a novice and his being left should not be taken seriously.

Miller's riding continues to be the star feature of the racing at Oakland these days, but the champion's best efforts were unavailing on his employer's three year-old Roalta, in the introductory race. The disqualification of La Rose advancd him into second place with Korosilany in the race following, succeeded in spreadeagling the opposition in the third with Triumphant and incidentally landed the greatest coup of the season for the owner, J. O. Miller earned a lucky third and second Sir Carter and Baker in the fourth and fifth respectively, winding up a strenuous afternoon's work with a brilliant victory on Escamado, by which the climax of popular enthusiasm was aroused.

Rough riding had no share in the spills sustained by L. Williams and Rettig. Both jockeys were incapacitated from riding during the rest of the afterno Williams, who had many engagements, was only slightly injured, but Rettig did not escape so luckily, and may not be seen in the saddle for several weeks. Jockey Sandy, injured by a fall from Plausible on Tuesday, will resume riding morrow. Teddy Robinson, one of the most reliable "money riders" in the country, attached for the past few seasons to Applegate & Cotton's stables, has retired from the saddle and leaves for Cleveland today, where he will attend school.

St. Candelaria, a colt owned by Tom Williams, met with an accident while schooling at the barrier yesterday and had to be destroyed.

STANDING OF THE JOCKEYS IN 1906.

Miller Leads in Flat Races, Ray in Steeplechases and Mr. D. Kerr Among Amateurs.

The 6,840 races at the principal tracks in the United States and Canada, covered in the charts published in Daily Racing Form during the year 1906, were divided: 6,452 races on the flat, 338 steeplechases for professional riders and fifty steeple chases and flat races for gentlemen amateurs. number of jockeys riding in the races on the flat was 727, the number riding in steeplechases was 192 and the number of gentlemen riders was eighty-six. The number of jockeys winning ten or more races on the flat was 132; the winners of less than ten races numbered 200 and the non-winners of less than too your numbered 401. number of jockeys riding in the races on the flat than ten racs numbered 404.

Walter Miller, who was third to Nicol and Knapp in the list for 1905 with 178 wins out of 888 mounts is at the head of the list this year with the greatest number of winners ever ridden by a jockey in Amer ica in any year. As against 20 per cent. winners in 1905, he rode in 1906 28 per cent. winners—8 per cent. improvement.

Nicol, who headed the list in 1905, and was second to Hildebrand in 1904, is again second in 1906 and with the highest percentage of winners for the year. Nicol, had he been able to ride on the last day of the year, many hours of which were spent with a physician at New Orleans, who was giving treatment to an injured foot, might have scored the J. Sullivan ...... 11 3 3 3 2 .27 was his 298 is one more than Hildebrand rode in 1904, and that was the best record in America until the coming of Miller in 1906. In three years Nicol has had 2,348 mounts and has ridden 617 winners. He is growing heavier rapidly, however, and this may be his last year in the saddle in this country, if, indeed, he is able to finish out this year.

The incorrigible Radtke, whose contract was sold by J. O. Keene to Paul J. Rainey in the early spring for $25,000, and who was indefinitely suspended in September, after having been "on the ground" more frequently than any other boy during the year, is third in the standing. It is a great pity that he has no better disposition.

Laverne Sewell, who lost his life through the falling of Lichtmess at Aqueduct, November 9, ranked fourth. Next comes Charles Koerner, a promising lightweight, followed in order by D. Austin and Aubuchon, with Garner, who by many turfmen at New Orleans, is expected to be the equal if not the superior of Miller in the contest for jockey honors in 1907. E. Robinson, Mountain and McDaniel are the only other boys who rode over 100 winners. Here is the list of the 123 riders of ten or more winners; Jockevs. W. Miller ....

Of the 192 steeplechase jockeys eighty-five won one or more races, Nat Ray again heading the list. In 1905 Ray rode nineteen winners out of fifty-one mounts. He is unquestionably the most finished steeplechase rider in America. Archibald, who is econd in the list, shows vast improvement over his riding in 1905, when he piloted only four winners out of forty-seven mounts. Hueston, who is third, was not in the list of 1905. Dupee has shown some improvement, likewise McHenry. It was E. Morrison's first year at cross-country riding. He did exceptionally well. Gaylor, who was second to Ray in 1905, took a big slump. Here is the list of the

CHANGES OF THE GRAND NATIONAL

The Liverpool Grand National Handicap is by common consent the leading steeplechase of the turf world, although it is not the most valuable. It is practically as well known as the Epsom Derby to admirers of racing the world over. This lends admirers of racing the world over. This lends interest to recent changes in its conditions, of which an editorial in a recent edition of London Sporting Life says:

"For the time being, however, interest is chiefly centered in the Grand National Steeplechase, mainly because the conditions governing this highly-popular event have once more been revised. It will be the very general opinion that the alterations are decidedly for the better. No one will be disposed to quarrel with the executive for raising the value of the prize from £2,750 to £3,000. The Grand Steeplechase de Paris, decided at Autenil in June orth £5,000, and we ought not to rest satisfied until our premier race under National Hunt Rules is brought more nearly into line with its counterpart in France. However, it is something to know that the disparity is gradually being lessened. An extra £250 does not carry us very far, but every little helps. In 1901 the Grand National was worth £2,500, so that there has been a 20 per cent. advance in six years. If this rate is steadily maintained some of us may live to see the £5,000 goal reached. So far as the monetary conditions are concerned, the only other alteration is that the horse finishing fourth is to receive  $\pounds 75$  instead of £50 as last year.

"But the change just alluded to is not by any means the most material of the innovations that have been introduced. Hitherto the scale of penalties operating against candidates for the Blue Riband of the 'Chase has not only been of a complex character, but it has had a most damaging influence on the sport in general up to the end of March in each season. Here are the conditions that governed the race last season: 'Winners after the publication of the weights of any steeplechases of three miles or over to carry four pounds, of a handicap steeplechase of any value over a distance exceeding three miles, or of any steeplechase value 600 sovs over any distance six pounds exten; no penalties for winners of steeple-chases confined to maidens at starting; horses originally handicapped in this race above eleven stone, seven pounds, and under twelve stone to carry only half of the foregoing penalties respectively, and if originally at twelve stone and upwards exempted from penalties.' This scheme was complex; nevertheless its meaning was plain enough to those who had animals engaged in the race possessing even so much as half a chance of winning. They could not afford to run the risk of their horses incurring a penalty; and so it came to pass that the managers of such meetings as those at Sandown and Kempton had to be careful when drawing up their programs. In this way everybody suffered. The drawback is now, however, practically removed. The new conditions read: 'A winner after publication of the weights of a handicap steeplechase of three miles and a half or over to carry four pounds extra; winners originally handicapped at eleven stone or over to be exempted from penalties.' That is plain, straightforward, and sensible. Once the weights are published a horse engaged in the Grand National can, without injury to his prospects, run in public as often as his owner chooses in any races of less distance than three miles and a half, and there are not many events in which the contestants are asked to traverse more than three miles; and even in these few the better class horses can compete without fear of the consequences. The probability is that we shall henceforth see a goodly proportion of the candidates for Liverpool honors doing the most strenuous part of their preparation in public, and interest in the great Aintree race will be heightened accordingly. It will be the finest advertisement that could possibly be procured, surpassing in that regard the benefit derived from ante-post betting. "The regulation that horses handicapped at eleven stone or over shall be exempted from penalty is particularly valuable. There is too great a tendency to crush good horses with weight. It may be said that four pounds is not a very serious matter, but it means a deal over the four and a half miles at Aintree. Looking back to last year's handicapped at eleven stone or over: Leinster, twelve stone seven pounds; Kirkland, twelve stone five pounds; Drumcree, twelve stone; John M. P., eleven stone eight pounds; Roman Law, eleven stone five pounds; Phil May, eleven stone; John M. P., eleven stone eight pounds; Roman Law, eleven stone five pounds; Phil May, eleven stone; it is conceivable that a horse originally handicapped at ten stone twelve pounds and mean a four pound penalty, and in that event he will be worse off than if he had, in the first instance, received an extra two pounds. This anomaly might be avoided another year by the insertion of a clause stipulating that under s tions read: 'A winner after publication of the weights of a handicap steeplechase of three miles tions read:

Zanliss, away running and showing improved form, set a fast pace from the start, stood a final hard drive gamely and outlasted Dinemock. The latter, much the best, was poorly handled, but ran well, finished fast and was unlucky to lose. Spider Web ran fairly well, but tired after appearing the winner. June Time had no mishaps. Lintila will improve and put up a good performance. Bog Fruit had a rough trip and has worked fast. Sister Ida was practically left at the post and not persevered with. Work a-Day, running straight and true all the way, closed up ground from the start and, going gamest at the end, was drawing away fast. Hazel M. broke fully in motion and saved much ground by a close turn, but tired slightly in the final drive. Rebel Queen showed good form and was going faster than the leaders at the end, will improve and was probably best today. Montbert came with a rush in the last furlong and finished gamely. Ida May ran green and will show improvement. Gremse showed early speed, but tired fast in the last furlong. Lattice had scant chance with a poor start. The others ran green and may show improvement.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Silverskin, running in suddenly improved form, followed Rustling Silk close up and, finishing-fast under a hard drive, got up in the final strides. Rustling Silk was lucky, broke fully in motion and showed the most speed nearly all the way, but tired after going three-quarters, but held on ganely to the end. Limerick Girl improved her position steadily from a slow beginning and finished with a rush. Nutwood tired after being a forward contender for the first half. Optional was taken wide most of the way and tired in the stretch. Sea Water ran poorly. Lally was away too poorly to cut any figure in the result. Scratched—66050 Falkland, 115; 59418 Blue Pirate, 111.

Winner—B. g. by Juvenal—Florentia (trained by H. McCarren, Jr.).
Went to post at 3:39. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Florizel, well handled and away running, ran to his best form and, standing repeated challenges in the early stages, stood the final drive gamely and held the others safe through the last furlong. Telegrapher, probably best, had a rough trip and suffered from interference in the first half, finished gamely and will improve. Kittle Platt, away slowly, saved much ground on the turns, finished fast and pulled up larne. Jacomo tired after going well for three-quarters. Polly Prim was a sufferer from interference and can do better. The others were away too badly to cut any figure in the result.

Spion ran as if best, forced and set a fast pace throughout, raced Campaigner into subjection in the first calf and, coming away on the turn, won well in hand. Campaigner broke fully in motion and showed a good turn of speed, but was unequal, to beating the winner. Refined, away in a tangle, closed a big gap, and outgamed Monere in the closing strides. The latter ran well, but tired in the closing drive. Miss: Bertha showed improved form and ran fairly well. Zick Abrams had no mishaps. Judge Burroughs was: away too poorly to be a serious factor. Entre Vous was practically left at the post. The winner was: entered to be sold for $1,000; no bid.
